Rowena List is an in-demand image organizer, speaker, CD author, writer, trainer and mentor for individuals and organizations alike. Inspiring by “enhancing faces and clearing spaces,” her contagious passion and no-nonsense demeanor has led to numerous media appearances, including: City TV’s Breakfast TV and The Fanny Kiefer Show as well as articles in the Vancouver Sun, The Province, The Vancouver View Magazine, BC Business Magazine and The Burnaby News Leader. Recently, Rowena was also featured in the April 2009 issue of More Magazine.

Prior to launching her company Getting It Together™ in 2005, Rowena distinguished herself as a top sales associate with a global cosmetics company (placing in the top 15 out of 32,000 associates for over 22 years!).

Today, a much sought after Professional Organizer - Rowena shares the personal trade secrets that helped her create and maintain a history of “success without struggle.” Unafraid to pull up her own sleeves, Rowena literally digs deep – introducing clutter reducing techniques, organizational tools and skillful coaching to help individuals and companies quickly rediscover the energy, productivity and confidence buried by (sometimes years of) clutter and neglect.

For Rowena, organizing a home, office or image, is only the first step in her “outside-in” approach to coaching. Starting with the transformation of a room, invariably she transforms the clients themselves.

*Letting go. Starting over. Reinvention.
-Total transformation from the outside in.*
